| NOTE: This Appendix was previously compiled using the Supply and Use Table 2006. The re-based 2012 series was done without the compilation of a Supply and Use Table (SUT). In the absence of the SUT, an updated Appendix is not possible at this time, hence the same table as the one in the previous publication. Notwithstanding, the compilation of Supply and Use Tables 2019 is in progress, and as such, upon completion the tables will be used to update this Appendix. |                |                |                 |                |                  |                |                |                  |                |                |                  |                |
